Comments:

A windy morning seemed to keep shooters home this Sunday. A somewhat consistent and heavy head wind seemed to help a couple of shooters while making the rest of us work hard trying to find that magic "hold" for the conditions. Rick Dotson scored a second perfect score today. Somehow Rick has managed to shoot both 40's on days having particularly high winds and generally terrible shooting conditions. Jan Gosau had an impressive score himself managing a 35 using a front bag only due to an early morning equipment loading "malfunction" that left his front rest at home. Lets hope for a calm morning next month.
